“ One of the best training workshops I have experienced...we noticed a significant difference in quality of their (students) delivery compared to previous cohorts. ”

Jessica Grocutt: Masood enterprise centre

Training that works.

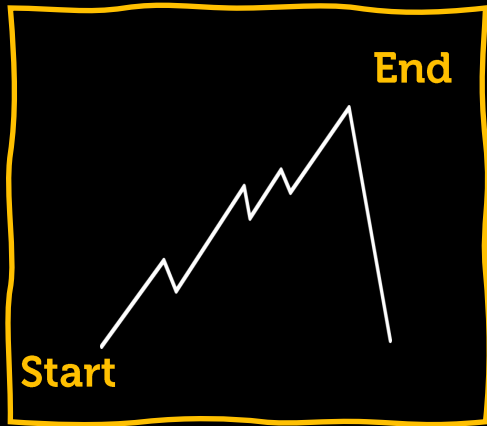

How it works.

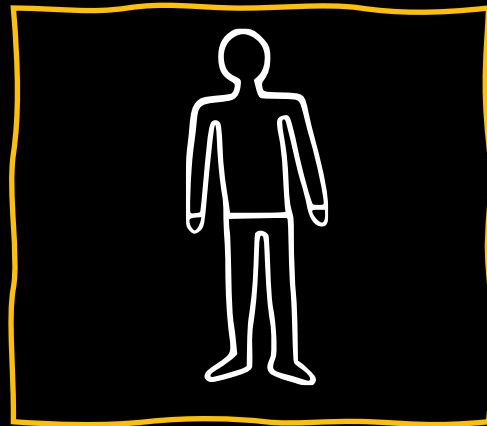

How it works.

- 1. Pick the course content you'd like. There are 4 standard workshops and a variety of extras which can be used to focus them.
- 2. Pick the format you'd like the content delivered in. In person, online, pre recorded, or a mix
- 3. Get in touch to organise details.

1. Pick a course

Storytelling for research.

Delivery skills.

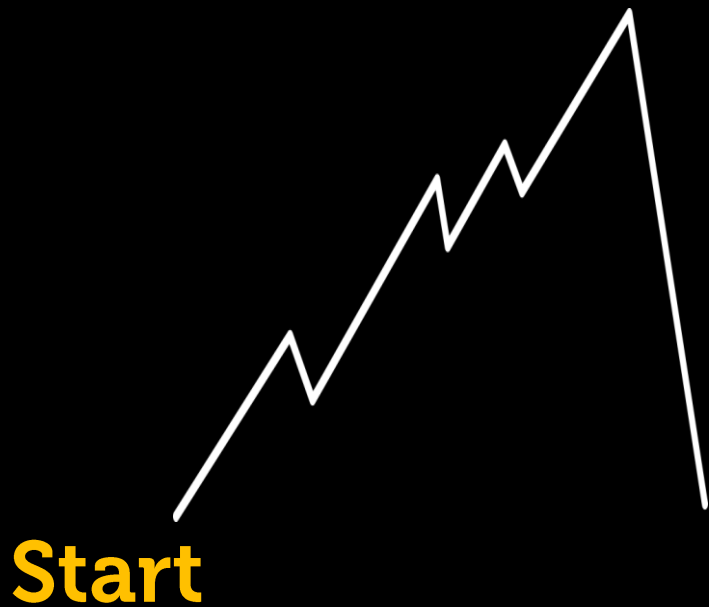

How to build a presentation.

PPT and slide design.

Storytelling.

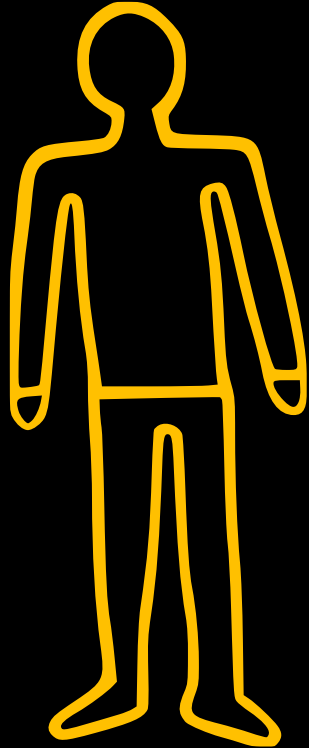

Heard about this storytelling thing and want to know more? This is the workshop for you.

By the end of the session participants will

- ✓ know why stories are powerful
- ✓ Understand which stories to tell
- ✓ Know simple techniques for telling stories
- ✓ Understand when to use research storytelling
- ✓ Practiced storytelling and started a research storybook
- ✓ Have seen a world class impression of an albatross

Delivery skills.

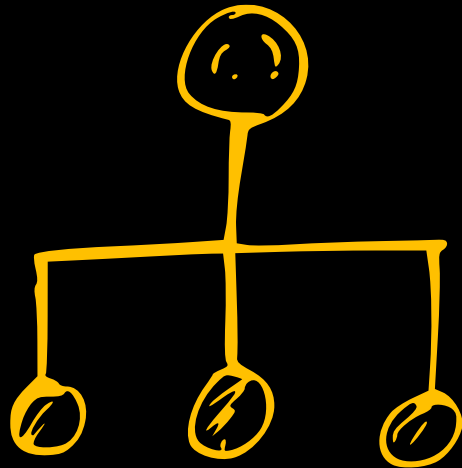

How you present is as, if not more important than what you say... this session will help you get it right and show the audience exactly what you need to get your message across.

- ✓ Body language
- ✓ Vocal use
- ✓ Emotional projection and actioning
- ✓ Techniques for dealing with nerves
- ✓ A story about a drippy pipe

This session can be focused on live or online delivery skills.

How to build a presentation.

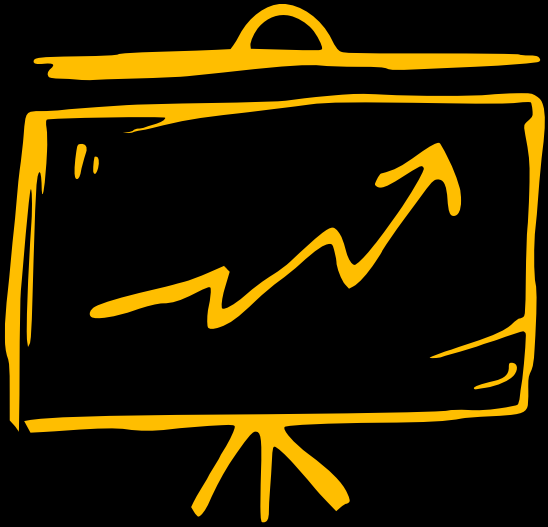

70% of doing a presentation happens before you get anywhere near a stage... and if you get it wrong, you'll defiantly regret it.

Participants will

- ✓ Learn the 3 core questions
- ✓ Be able to pitch to different audiences
- ✓ Have a process for preparation
- ✓ Make use of my building blocks strategy to take the stress out of making presentations
- ✓ Get some slide design basics

Slides and PPT.

We've all sat through awful presentations where the slides were terrible... but do you know why they were rubbish? Or how to make your own better?

This session covers

- ✓ Why bad slides are bad
- ✓ How to choose images
- ✓ How to focus attention where you want it
- ✓ How to make graphs not rubbish
- ✓ How to think about data
- ✓ A story about Florence Nightingale

Practice & Feedback.

The only way to really get better at presentations is to do them.

This is half day session which get participants creating talks, then presenting them back to the group. It can be added on to any of the main workshops.

You can...

- ✓ Combine with a main workshop for day long program
- ✓ Space out to add 'homework' and future touchpoints
- ✓ Can be done remotely or as pre recorded video's

Extra's.

These are bits of content we can add to the main sessions to focus them in a particular direction, or to add an extra 30 – 60 mins.

Talking to different audiences

How to talk to different audiences.

Knowledge bias, and how it hinders communication & how to avoid it

Pitching techniques

Specific thinking around selling, getting funding, or action.

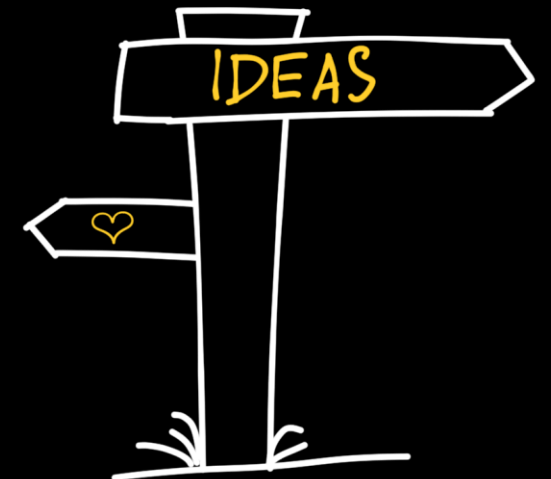

Great for pitching or persuasive talks

Giving feedback

What to look for and how to encourage presenters.

Help your group help each other.

Fully custom content is also available depending on your needs.

What do
participants think?

“ The training was probably the best I’ve experienced and received from over 70 hours worth of training in 2 years of my PHD ”

Nicola Allen: PHD researcher

Training that’s different.

It was high quality. Best Zoom talk I've had since the beginning of the pandemic. Learnt some interesting tips & tricks and had some insightful conversations. Duncan rocks!

Manchester research participant

Training that's quality.

“ Absolutely brilliant! Loved it! Really engaging and fun, with so much practical and accessible advice I can take forward and use
